Mr Stanley High
230 Park Ave
New York 17,N.Y.

Dear Mr High,-

Following the letter to you from my husband, the Rev.Perry O.Hanson and your gracious reply through your Secretary,we are mailing some material to you.

There is a rough outline of a few events with the captions "Irene Says" and "Perry Says" which was sent out with the invitations to the Wedding.
There is a copy of a feature story printed in the Kansas City Star.
There is a little book entitled "Chengs Mother".

The whole attempt is like stepping into the dark. I have been urged to do this yet I do not know what material nor which angle of the total story might be of use. If it is the Communist side and romance,perhaps the other gives the background. It can do no worse than help fill a waste basket.

There is relation of this story to the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. Although I am technically resigned by a Methodist marriage,I am not in heart. If any part of this material should be useable I would of course be given the opportunity to approve of it before any printing.

I am not using the name of the city Tsingtao,nor the name of my Chinese family,nor the name of my Board,all as you will understand is for security reasons.

I am sure that you have suffered through the attempts of budding writers so often that we can trust your appraisal. I would be happy if folks catch the adventure and the power of God to urge them to pray.

Thanking you for your help and
With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

Irene Forsythe Hanson

March 24, 1953.

Dear Mrs. Hanson:

I appreciate very much your giving me the opportunity to read the well written and interesting story of your inspiring experiences.

Unfortunately, the Reader's Digest has already published several articles showing what the coming of the Reds meant to China, and, therefore, we would not be able to use it. However, I feel sure that there are many religious publications that would be very glad to have it.

I should like to tell you again how much I appreciate your sending this on to me to read.

Sincerely yours,

Stanley High

Dear Friends:

Gardner Tewksbury, known to many of you, asked the privilege of seeing the entire collection of China Kodachromes in order that he might make a list of 50 basic subjects on Peking and environs. Many of his friends, having seen the slides I had made for him, requested such a list.

Thinking that it would be of interest to many he gave me permission to send it to you. Perhaps it will help you in making a selection for your own use and enjoyment.

Sincerely,

W. BURTON MARTIN

CATALOGUE OF KODACHROME SLIDES OF # CHINESE LIFE AND CULTURE

Introduction

Many China friends continue to request the complete list of the Kodachrome slides of Chinese Life and Culture. Herewith is a revision of our former list. In loose-leaf form, supplements will be issued if new material is available.

The library now includes 527 subjects of wide diversity and interest, carefully selected from the work of C. Walton Ackley, Allen Easton, Burt Martin, Max Pettit and Kenneth Wilson. Here will be found the old China and the new, the temples of the emperors and the large Forbidden City portrait of Mao. Village life is well represented. Many scenes of church activity are included. Whether for educational use, missionary presentations, or home enjoyment here is a wealth of material to interpret China.

Duplicating orders are prepared the first day of each month. Delivery from the laboratory takes about three weeks. For example, orders received during the month of October will go to the laboratory on November 1st and be delivered to the customer about November 25th. Price is .40 per slide in Eastman mounts. If fifty or more are ordered at one time a discount of 10% is allowed.
